

Winter Wedding

Enjoy a wedding in the season of magic, in a glorious Scottish setting with the blue skies of winter and the crisp fresh air. Look out into the winter cold from the luxury of the Lindsay Room warmed and scented with the burning log fire. From November through to February we are offering an inclusive winter warming package that will take care of your every need leaving you and your guests to relax and enjoy an unforgettable day of celebration.

Winter Wedding Package

A traditional Scottish welcome for the wedding party to the sound of the bag pipes played by a young Scottish piper.

The wedding service held in the Lindsay Room, to the background of soft music.

A glass of Prosecco served with seasonal canapés for whilst your photographer commits the memories of the day to photographs.

A sumptuous three course wedding breakfast, with a choice for your starter and main course to delight all of your guest's taste buds, served with a half bottle of house wine to suit the flavours of the meal.

Tea and Coffee served with highland fudge that will melt in your mouth.

A glass of bubbly to toast the newlyweds on their special day during the speeches.

Once you have finished dining and have been to freshen up and prepare you will be welcomed back to the Lindsay Room to enjoy a night of dancing and music.

With all the dancing and socialising you will be ready for a nice steaming bowl of stovies served with delicious oat cakes and a cup of tea or coffee.

The package will also include our Master of Ceremonies to guide your day and take care of your every need. Name cards, menu covers and the seating plan are also included.
